

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Roy Wilcox who underwent an operation at St. Anthony's hospital on December 19, is improving nicely.

Miss Ruth Fraley became the bride of W. Eldon Farnish last night at a charming and smart ceremony solemnized at 9 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church. Rev. John H. Boyd officiated, and the ceremony was followed by a large reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fraley, on Fourteenth street.

Mrs. Stewart J. Moore was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Bernice Lucas and Miss Louise Caswell. Folsom Tallman of Pendleton, acted as best man and the guests were ushered by Harold Brock, Clifton Irwin and Stewart J. Moore.

The church was charming in its simplicity, the floral arrangement being suggestive of spring, done in pastel tints. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Robert Stipes sang a solo. Edgar E. Courson presiding at the organ, and also playing the wedding march. The bride was attractive in a gown of gleaming white satin and tulle, with silver trimmings, and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and orchids.

Mrs. Moore, matron of honor, was attired in a gown of billowy pink tulle and she carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner rose buds and ferns. The bridesmaids' gowns were in the orchid tones, and their bouquets were Ophelia roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Farnish left for a short wedding trip to the coast, but have not yet chosen their future residence.—Portland Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Struve have returned from a visit with friends in La Grande.

Many delightful little gatherings are making the holiday vacations of the students now home from the various colleges and schools a gay round of festivities. Among the most interesting of these affairs is the prettily appointed sewing party at which Mrs.

George Peringer is entertaining this afternoon. Her guests include principally the college set and are Miss Zella Thompson, Miss Katherine Thompson, Miss Helen Johns, Miss Mary Johns, Miss Lillian Boylen, Miss Laura Jerard, Miss Pauline Rice, Miss Olive Quinn, Miss Beth Smith, Miss Mildred Berkeley, Miss Claire Haley, Miss Darline Swearingen and Miss Thelma Thompson.

A number of Pendleton young people went up to Athena last evening to attend a party given in honor of Miss Hazel Rader, formerly of this city, by Miss Ruth Rothrock, whose guest she is.

Mrs. Cora T. Lyle, formerly of La Grande, but now living in Pendleton, is spending the holidays with Mrs. W. B. Sargent. It will be remembered that Mrs. Lyle was prominent in musical circles while in La Grande and was an important member of the Tuesday Musical. She will be here only a few days, but will be glad to meet as many of her friends as possible.—La Grande Observer.

The Jolly Neighbors enjoyed a delightful session over the bridge tables yesterday afternoon, being entertained by Mrs. C. K. Cranston at her home on Willow street. None but club members were in attendance, the favor for high score being captured by Mrs. H. E. Bickers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Koeppen entertained charmingly last evening, asking a group of friends for several games of cards. Mrs. Wesley Matlock and G. I. La Dow were the successful contestants for high honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Collins and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Burroughs left last evening by way of Walla Walla for San Francisco where they will spend several weeks.

Miss Katherine Stanfield of Portland is a house guest of the Misses Mary and Helen Johns.

Charmingly appointed in every detail the wedding of Miss Mayne Snyder and Harley Curl was solemnized last evening at 9 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse, the father of the bride, Rev. J. E. Snyder, officiating. Though simply arranged, the ceremony was exceedingly pretty, being preceded by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Raymond Hatch, while the bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march as played by Miss Mae Poulson. The bride was lovely in a dainty frock of light green. Miss Merle Parlett was maid of honor and Earl Snyder, brother of the bride, best man. R. B. Snyder, another brother, gave the bride into the groom's keeping. Immediately at the conclusion of the service Mrs. Glen Stardivat sang a delightful solo.

The house was a bower of Oregon grape and red carnations for the occasion, great masses of the blooms being used in artistic profusion. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Merle Best and Miss Thelma Richardson. A great number of beautiful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Curl, among them being a full set of sterling silver, presented by the ladies of the congregation and the thirty invited guests, and a handsome Stark piano, the gift of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Curl left last night for their new home in Tillamook where Mr. Curl is engaged in the cheese industry. They will visit en route for a few days with the bride's grandmother in Vancouver and with the bridegroom's parents in southern Tillamook county. They are followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends in Pendleton.

Reuben Beckwith, who arrived this week from Seattle to spend part of the holidays with his parents here, was the inspiration for a delightful little dancing party for which Mrs. L. D. Idleman was hostess last evening at her home on Jackson street. The guests included many of Mr. Beckwith's former classmates and were as follows: Miss Laura Jerard, Miss Helen Johns, Miss Mary Johns, Miss Katherine Stanfield, Miss Kessl, Miss Bovie, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Hampton, Miss Claire Haley, Miss Ruth, Miss Jean Anderson, Miss Caroline Bonney, Miss Loree O'Connell, Miss Mildred Berkeley, Bertrand Jerard, Paul Finnell, James Bowler, Mr. Benjamin of Salem, Mr. Beckwith, Joseph Coleworthy, Walter Owen and Mr. Doane.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hill of Pendleton are in Portland and are guests at Hotel Portland.

Miss Lalah Wiley, director of music at the Cheney normal school, who has been a house guest of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Farnshaw for some time, left today for North Yakima where she will sing before the State Music Teachers' Association convention in that city tomorrow afternoon. Miss Wiley has an enviable reputation as a vocalist and has spent much time abroad where she studied with eminent masters. She returned from Europe shortly after the outbreak of the war.

Occupying a prominent place on the week's social calendar is the dancing party for which Dr. and Mrs. W. D. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson will be hostesses this evening in the assembly hall at the State Hospital.

Forest la Barre, who is to appear in recital tomorrow evening with Reuben Beckwith, arrived this morning from Seattle and is a house guest at the Beckwith home. Both Mr. Beckwith and Mr. la Barre are young musicians of more than ordinary ability. They have long been associated with prominent musicians and have won flattering notice from eminent virtuosos. Their appearance here tomorrow evening in the Methodist church is being hailed with much delight by Pendleton music lovers and a large attendance is anticipated.

Pendleton people who had the pleasure of meeting Miss Kathleen Lowes of Canada, who was the house guest this fall of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Farnsworth will be much interested in hearing of her recent marriage to Lieutenant Jenkinson, a prominent young officer of the English army who has been in active service on the French front. He returned to Canada on leave of absence and the marriage was solemnized then. Mrs. Jenkinson will accompany her husband to England where she will remain while he returns to his company in France. A brother of Mrs. Jenkinson, Lieutenant Arthur T. Lowes is also in the English army and just recently was awarded the military cross for conspicuous bravery.

Carl Hudeman of Adams, is spending the day in the city.

J. C. Wright is in from his reservation ranch today.

J. W. Messine of Hermiston, president of the Western Land & Irrigation Co., is here today.

Harold Brock returned this morning from Portland where he attended the Furnish-Fraley nuptials.

Irwin G. Brooks of Athena came down from his home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Timmerman of Helix were in from their home yesterday.

W. Bollons, well known O-W. official, was here in his private car yesterday.

Mrs. M. L. Watts and daughter were down from their home at Athena last evening.

N. A. Miller, pioneer furniture dealer of Athena, was at the Golden Rule last evening.

A. R. Shumway returned to his home at Milton today after spending several days in the city.

Mrs. J. A. Alton of Hillsboro is here visiting her son, C. E. Alton of 213 Stonewall Jackson street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Louis of St. Anthony, Idaho, who have been visiting here for some time returned to their home today.

John F. Hoyt, organizer for the W. O. W., has returned from Walla Walla to continue his campaign here for another 30 days.

Miss Louise Stocking, who has been visiting her sister, Miss Grace Stocking for several weeks, will leave this evening for her home in Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Coleworthy left for Roseburg to attend Mose Thompson, a pioneer resident of this city who is very ill at the old soldiers' home.

Fred T. Bloch, manager of the Hotel Pendleton, arrived home this morning from California where he had been visiting his mother. Mrs. Bloch stopped in Portland for a visit.

HORSE HAS NO REVERSE.
NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—"My horse—he used to be in the cavalry—my brave horse—he goes only one way—forward."
So pleaded Tany Carosello, 21, a driver, of No. 287 Mott street, to Magistrate House in the Traffic court yesterday. Patrolman Lenehan accused Tony of refusing to back up his brave horse on Broadway.
"Sometimes even cavalry retreat," said the magistrate; $1 fine.

FIRST BRITISH FOOD CONTROL MEASURE CALLED A FAILURE.

Regulation of Hotel Courses Futile, Says Newspapers; Tickets or Tax Urged.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—According to some newspapers the experience of two days of the first food control measure, which regulates the number and nature of courses served in hotels and restaurants, has been sufficient to prove it futile. It is said not only to have failed to check consumption but in many instances to have increased it.

It is claimed that there has been a lack of supervision, and many customers, finding that they could indulge in several servings of the same dish without having more than one course counted against them, have availed themselves freely of the loophole.

Moreover, there is nothing to prevent anyone from taking a succession of meals in different places. The papers urge food tickets or a tax on hotels and restaurant bills, as in Paris.

If the man who is going to invent a practicable way to harness the sun's heat direct is now buying his coal by the ton he doubtless feels a great stimulation of his inventive faculties.

Bond Bros. New Store

Don't get confused with its nature.

While it is going to be one of the most modern on the coast in arrangement for the convenience of patrons, don't think it is going to be a "swell" place in which you would hate to go wearing overalls.

It is going to be departmentalized so you can get what you want quick. We will cater to every man in every walk of life—and he will feel perfectly at home here every minute.

The big contracts held by us for future deliveries, are going to enable us to sell most of our new stock at the old prices.

We will open about the middle of January.

Awake America!

America has the treasure of the earth.

It is the richest prize in the history of the world—tempting bait for covetous foes.

And today we are unprepared for defense.

In the capital of every country in the world today there are busily engaged spies and intriguers who march only a step ahead of the armies of invasion when weakness invites invasion.

The only safety for America is in KNOWLEDGE.

Too many other nations have foundered on the rock of ignorance and weakness.

Never shall America permit the confiscation of its wealth, the desecration of its homes, the starvation of its children and the outrage of its women.

A forewarned and forearmed America will not invite the fate of Belgium, Poland and Serbia.
